PRESS RELEASE

August 24, 2012

The City of Shelton is currently investigating the theft of public funds in our Finance Department. City Auditors and law enforcement personnel are involved in this ongoing investigation.

The City has accepted the resignation of Assistant Finance Director Sharon Scanlon as it relates to this matter.

Finance Director Louis Marusic has been placed on administrative leave and outside personnel have been put in place to provide oversight in the Finance Department. Louis Marusic is not a suspect in this matter.

The City is currently pursuing various avenues to obtain full restitution. A more comprehensive public statement will follow completion of the investigation.

Based upon advice of Counsel, we cannot provide any more details at this time.

Thank you,
